CHARLES GALE FOSTER.

IN MEMORIAM.

CHARLES GALE FOSTER.

(I can conceive of no sweeter, grander eulogy to departed worth, than that which springs with heart-felt spontaneity from the fount of brotherly love. From long and intimate association with Mr. Charles Gale Foster, I can most sincerely endorse every kind thought and tender expression with which Hon. George J. Foster has so fondly clothed the memory of his departed brother, and I take the liberty of submitting for publication, without interlineation or correction, the following touching tribute from his pen.

FRED E. QUIMBY, Necrologist.)

It is a labor of love which prompts me to write a brief review of the life of my late brother, Charles Gale Foster, who departed this life on October 27, 1907, in the 49th year of his age. He was the second son and fourth child of Joshua Lane and Lucretia (Gale) Foster, and was born at Dover, New Hampshire, July 11, 1859. When he was a child his parents removed to Manchester, and after a brief residence there to Portsmouth, removing in the year 1872 to Dover, where Charles Gale resided up to the time of his death. He attended the public schools of Portsmouth, and acquired a practical education. In 1876 he began work in the office of the Daily Democrat, and in the course of his connection with it worked his way up through all positions to the editor's chair. This proved an excellent school for him, and the paper continued to speak for itself each day, carrying a powerful influence for good throughout Strafford County. Since the death of the father, several years ago, Charles Gale and his brother, the writer, have conducted the paper. He served in the common council in 1896-97 from Ward Three having been elected on the Republican ticket, and filled the position of president in the latter year. He was an attendant of the First Congregational Church of Dover. He was also prominent in fraternal circles, having been a past noble grand of Wecohamet Lodge of Odd Fellows, one of the oldest in the state, a trustee of the organization at the time of his death, past chief patriarch of Quochecho Encampment, and past commander of Canton Parker, Patriarchs Militant. He was also a member of the New Hampshire Genealogical Society. Mr. Foster married, July 31, 1883, Mabel Clement, daughter of Benjamin and Sarah Clement, of Dover, New Hampshire, who survives him together with two sons, Walter H. aged twenty years and Philip C. aged fifteen years. The former has been a student at Dartmouth for the past two years but severed his connection with the college to take up the profession of his father.

The life of my brother was a simple yet beautiful one in which the golden rule found an every day illustration. He believed in doing good to others and was very careful not to wound the sensibilities of anybody needlessly. As I look back over his well-spent life I can find nothing of the sordid or grasping in his nature. He was ever generous, kind and thoughtful, a good man and citizen, than whom no better comes before my mental vision. He was kind and considerate of his family and friends to whom he was bound by the eternal ties of love and friendship. He was a hard working man in his profession of editor and publisher, attending to his duties daily until the first of July last, when at the earnest solicitation of his family, who had seen that he was overtaxing his strength, he went away into the country for a short vacation. Returning the first of August, somewhat improved, he again tried to resume his duties as editor but he found after a few days in his office that his strength would not permit and he remained at his home thereafter where loving hearts and willing hands did all that was possible for his comfort and well-being. A serious heart trouble of some years duration, together with a bad bronchial trouble made the task of helping his condition almost hopeless from the first of his confinement to his home, but everything possible was done to prolong his life by his devoted family. He failed steadily, however, and the end came the latter part of October. He was ever cheerful and uncomplaining and the brave fight for life he made during the last night of his illness showed that he was not afraid of the dread summons trusting implicitly in the promise of Him who doeth all things for the best, and believing that he should again meet our beloved parents and dear sister who had crossed the river before him. Are they reunited on the other shore? Such is my belief. If such is not human destiny beyond the veil, then, indeed is life an empty dream and the future holds forth no ray of hope to the hungering soul. Beloved brother, fare thee well. May we meet again beyond the river.

GEORGE J. FOSTER.

QUERIES.

81. Folsom.—Wanted, parentage and date of birth of Betsey Mitchell Folsom, who married as a second wife Winthrop Gilman, born February 14, 1731, died April 12, 1812. He was son of Andrew Gilman, born in 1690 and his second wife Bridget, daughter of Col. Winthrop Hilton, who died Nov. 10, 1736. Both were residents of Gilmanton, New Hampshire.

Also would like the date of marriage, name and ancestry of the wife of Benjamin Folsom[5] born 5 September, 1740, in Newmarket near the Exeter line, son of Peter[4] Folsom and wife Hannah Morrison. Had a daughter Hannah, born Jan. 29, 1772; married April 11, 1796 Joseph Pease and died April 12, 1850. Benjamin[5] had a son Benjamin[6], who married Agnes Fullington, in or near Holderness, N. H.; her parentage is desired. Benjamin[5] Folsom was killed by a falling tree in December, 1773 and may have been the Benjamin Folsom of Wolfborough, carpenter, on whose estate Winthrop Gilman administered 30 July, 1788.

I would like to correspond with any person having knowledge of the families mentioned. (Mrs.) L. C. Heely, 165 W. 140th Street, New York, N. Y.

82. Cram.—Wanted, the given name of ——— Cram, who married Sarah Sanborn of Hampton Falls, N. H. She was born May 12, 1749; daughter of William and Elizabeth (Dearborn) Sanborn.

Would like the given name of ——— Cram, who married Elizabeth Pulsifer of Brentwood, N. H., daughter of Jonathan and Susanna Pulsifer. Her father's will was made July 20, 1766. John G. Cram, 105 Charles St., Boston, Mass.

83. Blanchard.—Can some one tell me where Ebenezer Blanchard (born 21 October, 1768) was born, and who his parents were? He married Catherine Searles, 26 January, 1804, and lived in Nashua, N. H., where their children were born. Several by the same name were born about the same time, but I have been unable to identify this one.

Also can any one tell me the birthplace and parentage of Thomas Blanchard who was born in 1716 and married Abigail ———. She was born 13 November, 1731, and may have been his second wife. She died in March, 1818. What was her maiden name, and when and where did she marry Thomas Blanchard? I think these were parents of Ebenezer above mentioned. (Rev.) Thomas M. Corson, Mason, N. H.

84. Thurber.—Wanted, the ancestry of Samuel Thurber of Unity, who married Sarah Gage of Wendell, now Sunapee.

Gage.—Joshua Gage married Jane Andrews or Anderson. Would like information in regard to their daughter Polly.

Mrs. Byron Groo,

21 First Avenue, Salt Lake City, Utah.

85. Coffin.—Wanted, names of the parents of George Coffin who married Abigail Raymond. Their son Silas was born at Rindge, N. H., June 27, 1792.

Wanted parents of Daniel Coffin who married Mary Grover. Their son Daniel Alphin, was born in Milan, N. H., April 12, 1841; and married September 27, 1862 Clara Ann Cole.

Wanted parents of James Coffin, of Deerfield, N. H., who married in 1815 Martha Waterhouse, of Saco, Me.

Wanted parents of Stephen Coffin whose son James, born in Alfred, Me., January 5, 1771; married August 5, 1794 Mary Stevens, of Fryeburg, Me.

Wanted parents of Moses Coffin born in Alton, N. H., May 30, 1812; married June 27, 1831 Hannah M. Burley.

Wanted parents of Stephen Coffin, born March 8, 1792; married May 13, 1819 Deborah Philbrick, of Sanbornton, N. H.

Wanted parents of Jonathan Coffin whose son Weare, was born in Tuftonborough, N. H., 1801; married at Salem, Mass. Mary Canney.

Wanted parents of Jonathan T. Coffin who was born at Gilmanton, N. H., May 8, 1802 and married May 10, 1823 Adeline P. Chase, of Portsmouth, N. H.

Wanted parents of Grindal Coffin who was born in N. H., 1785 and married at Unity, Me., Hannah Walker.

C. Howard Colket,

460 Drexel Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

86. Hill.—Smith.—Valentine Hill came from a southern town in Old England in 1630-31. He settled in Boston, became a man of note, was voted by the inhabitants a free man of the town. May 13, 1640, he was merchant, proprietor, town official, deacon—also a principal owner in a large wharf property. Later he bought land at Oyster River, now Durham, N. H., before 1649, and removed there with his family. Valentine was twice married, children of first marriage were: Hannah, John, Elizabeth, Joseph, Benjamin. Of second marriage: Joseph, John, Samuel, Mary and Elizabeth. Several of the first children died young. The youngest of his children was named Nathaniel, and this one inherited his father's property at Oyster River. Nathaniel was a member of the Provincial Council. Among the pioneers of Machias, Me., 1763-69, were six men named Hill, who came from Scarboro, five of whom were brothers. One of these, Joseph Hill, settled at the head of Gardners Lake, now in the town of Whiting. Joseph married a Mrs. Smith, and lived, in the early part of their married life. in New Brunswick. He died in Whiting in 1850. Their only son Enoch was born in New Brunswick. Now this Joseph, who married Mrs. Smith, was fourth in descent from Valentine of Oyster River. Can any one give me the line of descent from Valentine through the four generations to Joseph, with dates of births, marriages and deaths and the wives' names and ancestors? Who was the Mrs. Smith Joseph married? Albert C. Mason,

Franklin, Mass.

ANSWER TO QUERY.

80. Ide.—Nicholas Ide was a proprietor at Rehoboth, Mass., in 1643 or 1645; he married Miss Mary Bliss before 1664. She was the daughter of Thomas Bliss who died in Rehoboth, June, 1649. In his will he mentions his son-in-law Nicholas Ide.

Records of this Thomas Bliss are not entirely satisfactory to the writer at present, yet will be considered correct unless proven otherwise. For reference, see Savage, Vol. 1, 1860; Pope's, 1900; Carpenter Memorial, 1898.

CORRECTION.

On page 163, Vol. 4, New Hampshire Genealogical Record, the family record of Moses Canney is given which is correctly printed from the original record, but there is an error in the original record which should be corrected. A copy of the marriage certificate of this same Moses Canney gives the maiden name of his wife as Hannah Sawyer and is correct. Her mother's name was Huldah, and in some way this was substituted for her name. Perhaps Huldah may have been a middle name and not mentioned in marriage certificate.—Ed.

HON. CHARLES HENRY SAWYER.

IN MEMORIAM.

CHARLES HENRY SAWYER.

Ex-Governor Charles Henry Sawyer, born in Watertown, New York, March 30, 1840, died at Middlebrook Farm, (his suburban home), Dover, New Hampshire, January 18, 1908, of chronic cystitis.

He was the eldest son of Jonathan[6] and Martha (Perkins) Sawyer, and was in direct line of descent from John Sawyer of Lincolnshire, England, whose three sons, William, Edward, and Thomas, came to New England in 1636. Thomas[1] settled in Lancaster, Mass., and married, in 1648, Mary, daughter of John Prescott, the founder of the town. Their son Caleb[2], married Sarah Houghton, and had Seth[3], who married Hepzibah Whitney, who were parents of Caleb[4], next in line, who married Sarah Patch; their son, Phineas[5] and Hannah (Whitney) Sawyer, were the parents of Jonathan[6] and grandparents of Charles Henry[7], the subject of this sketch.

Charles Henry Sawyer came to Dover in 1850; his education, began in the schools of Watertown, N. Y., was completed in the public schools and Franklin academy of his adopted city. At an early age he entered the woolen mills founded by Francis A. and Jonathan Sawyer, and at the age of twenty-six, having acquired a practical knowledge of all branches of the business he was made superintendent of the works, and a little later became part owner. In 1873 the firm was incorporated under the title of the Sawyer Woolen Mills, and Mr. Sawyer was made its agent. In 1881 he succeeded to the presidency, which position he retained until the mills were purchased by the American Woolen Company about ten years ago.

Ever an earnest and consistant advocate of Republican principles he was frequently honored by his party by being elected to positions of trust and responsibility. He served in both branches of the city government and in the state legislature. In 1881 he was appointed a colonel on the staff of Governor C. H. Bell, and in 1884 was chosen a delegate to the Republican national convention at Chicago. Subsequent to his retirement from the Gubernatorial chair, to which exalted station he was elevated in 1886, he served as trustee of the Dover public library and also of Pine Hill cemetery.

Mr. Sawyer also served on the directory of the Strafford National bank, as a trustee of the Strafford Savings bank, president of the Dover Horse Railroad Company, president of the Eliot Bridge Company, as a director of the Portsmouth & Dover Railroad Company for many years, and was officially connected with the Dover Gaslight Company. He was a Mason of high degree, having served as master of Strafford Lodge, No. 29, A. F. & A. M., for two terms, and was for many years eminent commander of St. Paul Commandery, Knights Templar. He was a member of the New Hampshire Genealogical Society, also of the New Hampshire Society of Sons of the American Revolution.

He was deeply interested in religious matters and was a faithful attendant at the First Parish (Congregational) church.

In 1865 he married Susan Ellen, daughter of Dr. James W. and Elizabeth Cowan, who died about five years ago. He is survived by four sons: William D. of New York, Charles Francis of Dalton, Mass., James C. of Andover, Mass., and Edward of Stamford, Conn., also by a daughter, Miss Elizabeth Sawyer of Dover.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon, January 21, at the First church; the services were conducted by Rev. George E. Hall, D. D. The body lay in state exposed half length and the beautiful, rich casket was completely hidden from view by a magnificent display of the many floral tributes. Chopin's funeral march was played by the organist and the choir rendered the following selections: "There is a Wideness in God's Mercy," and "Crossing the Bar." The services were attended by a large and distinguished gathering; many flags were displayed at half-mast during the day, and all places of business were closed during the funeral services.

The honorary bearers were ex-Governor David H. Goodell of Antrim, ex-Governor John B. Smith of Hillsborough, ex-Governor Hiram A. Tuttle of Pittsfield, Judge Jeremiah Smith of Cambridge, Mass., E. R. Brown, Charles H. Fish, Hon. John H. Nute, Judge George S. Frost, of Dover. The pall bearers were Dr. Roscoe G. Blanchard, Hon. B. Frank Nealley, Hon. A. Melvin Foss, Alden S. Hatch, Capt. W. W.

Hardy, Natt Brown, of Dover, George F. Hill of Somersworth, Dr. John H. Twombly of Milton, all of St. Paul Commandery, Knights Templar.

Mr. Sawyer was a man of kindly disposition, social and generous in all his relations. He was a devoted husband and affectionate father, who idolized his family and who worshiped at the hearthstone as at an altar. As a friend he was sincere, unflinching, and unswerving in that loyalty that makes for the highest standard of friendship. As a man and citizen he was broad and charitable, and his innate honesty and strength of character not only proved an elevating and ennobling influence in the immediate circle in which he moved, but its subtle power reached out beyond the confines of home to bless and benefit mankind.

JAMES ALBERT EDGERLY.

Hon. James Albert Edgerly, of Somersworth, N. H., President of the New Hampshire Genealogical Society and one of the most distinguished lawyers in the state, died at the Wentworth hospital, Dover, N. H., of uraemia, on Saturday, February 8, 1908, aged 61 years, 8 months and 24 days.

Mr. Edgerly was born at Wolfborough, N. H., May 15, 1846, and was the son of James and Nancy (Wedgewood) Edgerly, of that town. He was of the seventh generation, in descent, from Thomas Edgerly of Dover, N. H., (Oyster River), the first one of the family who came to this country. He was grandson of Daniel[5], born July 16, 1777, and Abigail (Deland) Edgerly of Wolfborough, and a great-grandson of James[4] Edgerly, born April 13, 1737, by his second wife Rachel (Carlisle) Kent. This James[4] Edgerly, the great-grandfather, was born at Durham; he was at the battle of Bunker Hill, and served for three years in the revolutionary war. He removed from Durham to Milton, N. H., thence to Brookfield, and finally to Wolfborough, where he died in 1815. Mr. Edgerly was great-great-grandson of John[3] and Elizabeth (Wakeham) Edgerly, of Durham, who was son of Samuel[2] Edgerly of Oyster River by his wife Elizabeth, the daughter of Capt. John Tuttle of Dover, and grandson of Thomas[1] Edgerly, who emigrated from England and who was the ancestor, probably, of all of the name in this country. Thomas Edgerly[1] came to Dover, early as 1665. He was received an inhabitant of Oyster River, Township of Dover (now Durham), "ye 19th of January 1665." He took the oath of fidelity, "At a training ye 21st of June 1669," and was admitted freeman "at a countie court held at Portsmouth ye 15th of May 1672." He was one of the justices before whom the Rev. Joshua Moody was tried for nonconformity in 1674, and lost his commission soon after for dissenting to the opinion of the majority of the court convicting Mr. Moody.

At the memorable attack on Oyster River settlement by the French and Indians on the 18th of July, 1694, his garrison house was destroyed, he was taken prisoner, and his son Zachariah was killed. He managed to escape from his captors soon after, and was living at Oyster River in 1715. He died probably soon after that date.

Mr. Edgerly received his education in the public schools of Wolfborough and at Tuftonborough academy; at the age of twenty years he located in Somersworth, where he engaged in teaching for several terms. Having decided to follow the legal profession he entered the law office of the late William J. Copeland and was admitted to the bar in 1874. Possessed of an unusually keen and analytical mentality, he supplemented his academic training with generous study and research, traversing practically every avenue of human thought. His law library comprised about 2500 volumes, and was regarded as the best private collection in the state. This vast store of legal literature, supplemented by rare and valuable books and treatises along related lines, as well as by hundreds of volumes on history, travel, science, etc., placed at his command an array of fact and data which cannot be duplicated even in the progressive public library of today.

As a barrister Mr. Edgerly was very successful and won marked distinction not only at Strafford County bar but throughout New Hampshire and Western Maine. He had a very large and extended practice. He was president of the New Hampshire Bar Association in 1907, and was also a member of the American bar.

He served as State Senator in 1895-96, and represented his adopted city in the popular branch of the state government in 1883, 1885, and 1901, serving upon the judiciary and other important committees. He was also a member of the Constitutional Convention which convened at Concord, December 2, 1902, and was one of the trustees of the New Hampshire State Hospital at the time of his death, having served in that capacity since 1896. He also served his adopted city as corporation counsel, as a member of the board of education, and was recently re-elected for the third time as a trustee of the Public library. He was one of the incorporators of the New Hampshire Genealogical Society in 1903, and has held the office of president of the society since its organization.

To every position in life to which he was called he brought the powerful influence of a winning personality, the force of a cultured, liberal mind, a steadfastness of purpose which reached its greatest height when confronted by obstacles which would cause less gifted men to faint and yield.

Mr. Edgerly was twice married. His first wife was Mrs. Annie Arline (Ames) Wood, to whom he was married March 19, 1874. She was the widow of Zachary T. Wood and daughter of Israel and Sophia (Hoyt) Ames of Ossipee, N. H., where she was born January 25, 1852; she died at Somersworth, June 24, 1898. He married second at Newmarket, N. H., January 3, 1900, Alice Minerva Abbott, daughter of Charles Bennett and Minerva Ann (Stackpole) Abbott of Newmarket, where she was born October 19, 1870. She survives her husband.

The funeral occured from his late home, 36 Prospect street, Somersworth, on Wednesday, February 12, and was largely attended not only by his fellow citizens, but by prominent men from all parts of New Hampshire, including many distinguished members of the York County (Maine) bar.

The Superior Court in session at Dover was adjourned for the day; the following members of the Strafford County bar officiating as pall bearers: Hon. A. G. Whittemore, Hon. John Kivel, of Dover; Hon. S. D. Felker, Geo. E. Cochrane, Esq., of Rochester; Samuel W. Parker, Esq., of Farmington, and William S. Mathews, Esq., of Somersworth. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Ezra A. Hoyt, Universalist, of Beverly, Mass.

Mr. Edgerly was without definite church affiliation, yet he lived and labored for that which appealed to his finite understanding as the ideality of purity and truth. Recognizing the omnipotence of the Great Creator he gauged his life line by the measure of Divine love, and contributed in generous measure to the standard of his faith.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY.

At a meeting of the board of trustees of the New Hampshire Genealogical Society, held March 18, 1908, Hon. Arthur G. Whittemore, first vice-president, was unanimously elected president of the society, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. James A. Edgerly. Dr. Henry R. Parker, second vice-president, and Hon. John T. Welch, third vice-president, were advanced to the office of first and second vice-president, respectively. Action toward filling the vacancy, thus created in the office of third vice-president, was deferred until the annual meeting, which occurs on Wednesday, April 15. Suitable memorials on the death of Mr. Edgerly were adopted, and remarks eulogistic of the life and public services of the deceased were made by several members of the board.

QUERIES.

87. Varney.—Tibbetts.—Elijah Varney born in Rochester, N. H., 12 November, 1773, married 25 July, 1801 Sarah, daughter of David and Mary (Tibbetts) Tibbetts of Rochester. It is presumed that his parents were Moses Varney, Jr., son of Moses and Phebe (Tuttle) Varney of Dover, and Huldah ———. I would like very much to learn more of Moses Varney, Jr. and his family, and wife's maiden name; also something of family of David Tibbetts.

H. C. Varney,

743 Iglehart Avenue, St. Paul, Minn.

88. Lane.—Wanted, the given names of the parents of Sally Lane, born in Meredith, N. H., August 29, 1802; died in Philadelphia, Pa., December 15, 1894; married John Cram of Meredith, N. H., August 7, 1823. Her mother was a Fernald.

John G. Cram,

105 Charles Street, Boston, Mass.

89. Farmer.—Can some one tell me the ancestry of Moses Farmer born in Greenfield, N. H., August 3, 1771? His brother, Gardner Farmer, was born in Greenfield, November 18, 1779; there were several other children. Their parents died and they were placed in different homes, Gardner went to Exeter, N. H., and Moses to his father's sister who married a Mr. Hardy. Moses married in Tewksbury, Mass., Sarah Jaquith, May 26, 1796. They always claimed relationship with Daniel Davis Farmer born March 28, 1793, at Derryfield, N. H., who married Abigail Hackett. I have the record of these two brothers but do not know any more.

(Mrs.) Hattie Farmer Thompson,
524—22d Street, San Diego, California.

90. Cole.—On page 246, Vol. VIII, "Mayflower Descendants," Eastham vital records: James Cole and Hannah Childs were married tenth day of January, 1683/4. Among their children were: Mary, born September 14, 1684, and Ruth, born Nov. 13, 1686. Is this Ruth Cole the one who married Deacon Nathaniel Luther of Swansea, Mass.? And did Mary Cole marry Jonathan Kinsley or Kingsly of Swansea, Mass.?

Gardner.—Can any one inform me who the ancestors of Hepsibah Gardner were; she married Enoch, the only son of Joseph Hill of Whiting, Maine. This Joseph Hill died at Whiting in 1850; he was a descendant from Valentine Hill of the parish of Oyster River.

Littlefield.—Was the ancestry of Abigail Littlefield who married Robert Munson, Jonathan[3] Littlefield, Francis,[2] Jr., Edmund[1] and wife Anne ———? Edmund[1] Littlefield came from Southampton, England, in 1630. He is first found in Exeter with Rev. John Wheelwright, at this time. In 1641, he is of Wells, Me., is said to have been the first settler in that town. Can some one who has access to the early records of Wells, Me., give me the names of the wives of Edmund,[1] and Francis,[2] Jr. with dates of their births, marriages and deaths. Albert C. Mason,
Franklin, Mass.

91 Johnson.—Wanted—Ancestry of wife of Seth[4] Johnson, (Benjamin,[3] Maj. William,[2] Edward[1]). He was born at Woburn, Mass., April 23, 1707, died at Pelham, N. H. Their eight children were all born at Woburn between 1733 and 1751. Can any one tell me when and where Seth married Mary ——— and her maiden surname?

Wyman.—Wanted—Ancestry of Phebe Wyman who married Jonathan[5] Kimball of Pelham, N. H.,—his second wife—October 13, 1750, and had eleven children. Jonathan was born at Bradford, Mass., June 16, 1725. When did he die?

Russell.—Wanted—Ancestry of Lucy Russell who married Samuel[5] Wood of Groveland, Mass., July, 1783. She died February 28, 1843, at Groveland, Mass., aged 86; was daughter of John Russell of Littleton, N. H., nothing further known. (Mrs.) Anna B. Boynton, Newburyport, Mass.

ANSWER TO QUERY.

87. Tibbetts.—Elijah Varney, son of Moses Varney of Wolfborough, N. H., was born at Rochester, N. H., Nov. 12, 1773; he married July 25, 1802, (not 1801,) Sarah, daughter of David and Mary (Tibbetts) Tibbetts of Rochester. She was born April 13, 1778. Elijah and Sarah (Tibbetts) Varney had the following children:

Nathaniel, born December 1, 1802.
Ebenezer, b. March 7, 1804.
Phebe, b. Jan. 20, 1806; m. 1st Jonathan Tibbetts; m. 2d Dudley Pike.
Calvin, b. July 26, 1808.
David Tibbetts, b. June 21, 1810.
Jonathan, b. May 3, 1813; died when about three years old.
Ezra, b. March 12, 1815.
Moses, b. Nov. 22, 1818; died unmarried Nov. 8, 1837.
Lydia, b. May 12, 1823.
George, b. December 5, 1826, died June 25, 1828.

David Tibbetts, above mentioned, resided at Rochester, N. H., living in the old Tibbetts garrison house, long since torn down, which stood near the road running from the Eddy bridge to Adam's Corner. He was born March 15, 1734, son of Aaron and Penelope (Richardson) Tibbetts of Dover, N. H., later of Rochester. He was of the fifth generation from Henry Tibbetts, the emigrant; his line being Aaron,[4] Ephraim,[3] Jeremiah,[2] Henry.[1] He married his cousin Mary, daughter of Elijah and Love (Drew) Tibbetts. She was born January 20, 1741; died July 25, 1833. He died December 25, 1829. The children of David and Mary (Tibbetts) Tibbetts, order of births not certain, were:

Lydia, born ——; m. March 7, 1782, Samuel Roberts.
Elizabeth, b. ——; m. a Mr. Murray.
David, b. July 12, 1771.
Nicholas, b. ——; m. 1st Sally Wingate, 2d Dorcas Tibbetts, daughter of Ichabod Tibbetts of Berwick, Me.

Phebe, b. ——; m. Nov. 24, 1791, Clement Libbey.
Susan, b. ——; m. Thomas Varney of Alton, N. H.
Sarah, b. April 13, 1778; m. Elijah Varney.

SOME ERRORS IN HOWARD'S GENEALOGY OF THE CUTTS FAMILY.

My attention was recently called to the "Genealogy of Cutts Family," by Mr. C. H. C. Howard, as having information interesting to me regarding some of my forbears. Upon examination I found some decidedly erroneous statements which I wish to correct.

I refer to Mr. Howard's Nos. 165 and 487, which have no basis in fact, except that Elizabeth Gerrish, his No. 165, married Capt. Hopley Yeaton, but she was his second wife and bore him no children.

Captain Yeaton's first wife was Comfort Marshall, and according to the records of the South Church, Portsmouth, N. H., they were married Nov. 15, 1766. My sources of information regarding their children are the above named records, and a journal kept by one of the children, Mary, during the summer of 1801, which is in my possession.

The church records show the following baptisms, viz.:

1769. Oct. 13. John, son of Hopley Yeaton.
1772. Aug. 29. Mary, daughter of Hopley Yeaton.
1775. Aug. 20. Hopley, son of Hopley Yeaton.
1777. Oct. 16. Hopley, son of Hopley Yeaton.
1779. Apr. 4. George, son of Hopley Yeaton.
1782. Oct. 5. Samuel, son of Hopley Yeaton.
1784. Aug. 24. Samuel, son of Hopley Yeaton.

The recurrence of the names Hopley and Samuel may be accounted for by the death of each to whom the name was first given, although the church records make no mention of them except when baptized.

In her journal Mary Yeaton writes much of her brothers Hopley, George and Samuel, but says nothing of John, from which I conclude he was not then living.

Comfort (Marshall) Yeaton died June 29, 1788, as it appears on her headstone in the North Burying-ground at Portsmouth.

1789. Sept. 26. Capt. Yeaton married Elizabeth Gerrish. This date I get from the Portsmouth, N. H., town records.

Capt. Yeaton was commissioned "Master" in the Revenue Service of the United States, March 21, 1791.

In "Eastport and Passamaquoddy" by William Henry Kilby, I find page 339, "Captain Hopley Yeaton was commander of the first revenue cutter on the Passamaquoddy Station."

He moved his family to Lubec, Maine, then a part of Eastport, doubtless to have them near, and that was his home for the remainder of his life.

He died May 12, 1812, and Elizabeth (Gerrish) Yeaton died April 12, 1819. I get the former date from his headstone, and the latter from Lubec town records.

It will be noted I have been very particular to substantiate my statements by references to sources which I think will be regarded as conclusive. Further references could be given but I feel they are unnecessary.

ROBERT W. SAWYER,

Bangor, Maine.

WILLE HILL, OF DURHAM, N. H.

A SOLDIER OF THE REVOLUTION.

By CAPT. GEORGE A. GORDON, Cor. Memb., N. H. Genealogical Society.

The private soldier of the American Revolution deserves grateful remembrance. The scanty items of his career, whether of memory, tradition, or record, should be rescued from oblivion. Recently, incidents covering the career of one Willey Hill, of Lee, N. H., have been related, which, with the kind approval of your editor, are herewith supplied for its columns.

The Hill family, chiefly descendants of Valentine Hill and his son, Nathaniel, were early settlers in that portion of Dover, denominated Oyster River, which, for a century, remained an integral part of the mother town. It became Durham in 1732, under Gov. Belcher. The Willey, the Lamos, the Giles and the Drew families were neighbors of the Hills. In this section of Dover, John Hill had a grant of land in 1653, on Long Creek, an affluent of Great Bay, and, the next year, Thomas Willey had a grant on Little Bay. These localities lie southwest of the present village of Durham and east of what is known as Lubberland. This is a corruption of the German Leiberland, home of the Faires. The early emigrants consisted largely of the middle class of English people among whom tales in fairy lore were very popular. Every spot of grass greener than common was recognized as a fairy ring; and so many were observed in this part of Durham that it was denominated agreeably to the popular whim.

Legends of fairies rang once more
In airy minstrelsy,
Myths songful and sweet from ouphen lore
Echoed in melody.

The appellation has remained. In 1706, William Hill dwelt at the lower side of Pudding Hill, now in Madbury, east of the B. & M. railroad. The mast path from the interior to the waters of Great Bay ran past his plantation. In 1709, a grant was made to the westward of his place.

JOHN HILL was assessed in the Provision rates for Oyster river, 1649, 1650, 1657, 1659, 1675, and in 1679. John Hill was a petitioner for the division of Dover and in 1679 he subscribed the oath of allegiance at Dover. He served on the grand juries of 1668 and 1671. His last appearance is on the tax list for 1684. He had wife, Elizabeth.

Children:

i. JOSEPH, b. 1657; m. (1) Catherine Knight, daughter of Samuel and Amy (Carle) Knight, of Kittery; (2) Susanna Beedle.
ii. SAMUEL, b. 1659; m. Elizabeth Williams, daughter of William Williams, of Oyster River.
iii. JOHN, b. 1661; m. Sarah Brackett, daughter of Thomas and Mary (Mitton) Brackett, of Kittery.
iv. BENJAMIN, b. 1665.
v. HANNAH; m. William Frye.

This family removed, chiefly before 1700, to Kittery, where they have held high position; one member, in the seventh generation, Hon. John F. Hill, of Augusta, Me., having been, in 1900-01, Governor of the state.

WILLIAM[1] HILL was taxed at Oyster River parish in 1659, 1675, and 1684. He had wife, Judith, who, then a widow, was admitted to the church, 7 April, 1723.

By presumption, WILLIAM[2], b. 1679, and Judith Hill, who conveyed title to land at Oyster River, in 1729, were their children, descendants of whom are still found at Durham. In 1716, William Hill, or his son, was chosen, at Dover town meeting, one of the surveyors of highways, and, in 1717, a drover for the north side of Oyster River. In 1722, he was paid for service connected with the survey of a road to the Winnipiseogee Lake and the same year he was employed as pilot on the same survey. In 1721, he was paid for scouting and, in 1724, as a transient scout. He was a petitioner, in 1733, for the division of Dover.

WILLIAM[3] HILL, had wife, Hannah, and son:

i. HENRY.

He married (2) 21 August, 1729, Patience Drew, baptized 27 May, 1739, and had children:

ii. ABIGAIL, bapt. 6 September, 1739.
iii. BENJAMIN, bapt. 6 September, 1739.
iv. LYDIA, bapt. 6 September, 1739.
v. ROBERT, bapt. 10 August, 1740.
vi. SOBRIETY, bapt. 9 May, 1743.

WILLIAM[3] HILL, then of Madbury, died in 1760, and his widow, Patience, 7 July, 1805, very aged.

Out of this stock, lineage indeterminate, there is so little on record and that very uncertain, came EDWARD[4] HILL, a soldier in the French war and in the war of the American Revolution.

EDWARD[4] HILL was a trooper under Capt. Daniel Rogers, and marched to Charlestown, Number Four, in the summer of 1757; in 1765, he was a corporal in a troop of horse, commanded by Capt. Samuel Demeritt. His military spirit survived till the revolution. He volunteered in the first company from Lee, in 1775, under Capt. Smith Emerson, and served as a sergeant in the brief campaign of that year, on Seavey's Island, Portsmouth harbor.

In 1765, EDWARD HILL was a petitioner, as an inhabitant of Durham, for a new parish. The petition was granted and in January, 1766, Lee was incorporated. He dwelt there during the remainder of his life; his name appearing on the tax list and on petitions for the appointment of magistrates. In 1778, he took charge of the estate of his neighbor, Thomas Willey, deceased, of whose will he had been appointed executor. He made his will in 1787, which was probated after his sudden death, July, 1800. In it, mention is made of his wife, Mary, and six children, Willey, Hannah, George, Mary, Joseph, and Martha.

In addition, good memories of aged citizens recall the children of EDWARD HILL, in earlier years, as follows:

i. WILLEY, b. 1759; m. Miriam Lamos, Lee, N. H.
ii. HANNAH; m. Jonathan Young, residence Barrington, N. H.
iii. GEORGE.
iv. ELIZABETH; m. Nicholas Roberts, residence Strafford, N. H.
v. JOSEPH.
vi. JUDITH, d. 1860; m. Moses Lamos, residence Lee, N. H.
vii. MARY.
viii. MARTHA.

WILLEY[5] HILL, or, as he generally signed his name, WILLE HILL, was a son of Edward[4] and Mary Hill, of Lee, born 1759-60, who was adopted and raised from childhood by, tradition says, Thomas Willey, a well-to-do farmer of Lee, who bequeathed, in 1778, to his namesake his homestead farm. Before this, the young man had been in the military service, wherein he left a good record of seven years' service.

In November, 1775, in the same company, where his father was a sergeant, he served as a fifer in Capt. Smith Emerson's company, at Seavey's Island, Portsmouth harbor. In April, 1777, he mustered from Lee in Capt. F. M. Bell's Dover company, at 19 years of age. In 1778, he mustered in the 2d battalion N. H. troops, Col. Nathan Hale, where he is described as a resident of Lee, 18 years of age, 5 feet 7 inches in stature, of light complexion, brown hair and black eyes. In 1779, he mustered in Col. Stephen Evan's regiment and in 1781, in Capt. Jere. Fogg's company, 2d N. H. regiment, where he soon became sergeant. In the New Hampshire town returns, Wille Hill is credited, in 1778, in the quota of Lee, as in Continental service, also, on the quota of Barrington, in support of which he filed the following:

"This May Sertify all whome it May Concern That I William Hill at the Time I in Listed my self in the Continantial Servic to Serve three years for the Parish of Lee that My home and all my Interest was and had been for some time befoure in the town of Barrington and after faithfully Sarving my time out that I had agreed for I Listed During the War for the town of Barrington as I thought and always when I Returned on furlo I Came to Said town having No Interest any Whare Els to which I do hereby

Attest WILLIAM HILL"

Vital statistics of the family are meagre. We quote from the memory of living descendants, in the hope that others may add to it.

WILLE[5] HILL, the soldier in the Revolution, born 1758-60, married Miriam Lamos, a daughter of Samuel and Esther Lamos of Lee, and a grand daughter of Nathaniel and Abigail (Giles) Lamos, of Durham. On return from the war, Willie Hill became a resident of Lee, dwelling on the Willey place, which he inherited. He was assessed for taxes in 1787 and afterward. He died at Lee in 1847, his wife, Miriam, having predeceased in 1844. Both were buried on the farm, as was his father, Edward. These graves are unmarked, though well known. The Sons of the American Revolution should place a marker at each grave of these Revolutionary soldiers.

Wille[5] and Miriam Hill had a family of ten children, five sons and five daughters. No family record is known to exist. The eldest daughter died in 1871, aged eighty-five. Two of the sons, John and William, settled at Starksboro, in the western section of Vermont, and one of the daughters spent a portion of her married life there. Descendants, well to do and of reputation, still reside at Starksboro. Several served in the civil war, forty years ago.

TRUEWORTHY[6] HILL, the youngest son of Willey[5] and Miriam Hill, was born at Lee, 26 December, 1799, and died there, 13 May, 1842. He was a farmer on the turnpike road on the old place, served as a selectman of Lee, for several years, and was a man very much beloved and respected by his fellow citizens. He married, about 1820, Mary Layn, born at Lee, 29 October, 1802, and died there, 28 May, 1887, daughter of Edmund and Elizabeth (Winkley) Layn. They had children, viz:

i. JOHN WINKLEY, b. 22 June, 1822, d. 20 April, 1899; m. 4 August, 1850, Mary Jane Caldwell.
ii. SUSAN JANE, b. 25 July, 1824; m., 1850, Timothy Warren Gordon.

vii. GEORGE FRANKLIN, b. 30 April, 1837, d. 26 December, 1902; m. 4 July, 1862, Sarah Jane Baker.
viii. HOSEA BALLOU, b. 9 November, 1839; m. 12 May, 1863, Rachel Ariadne Norris.

The mother of Mrs. Trueworthy Hill, Elizabeth Winkley, born 3 August, 1771, was a daughter of Samuel and Mary (Brewster) Winkley, of Barrington, N. H. Mrs. Hill's grandmother, Mary Brewster, was a namesake and descendant of the notable heroine of the Indian raid at Portsmouth, of 1696, who recovered and lived almost fifty years, after being scalped by a savage.

SUSAN[7] JANE HILL, daughter of Trueworthy[6] and Mary (Lane) Hill, was born at Lee, 25 July, 1824. She married, in 1850, Timothy Warren Gordon, of Farmington, Me., a son of Timothy and Elizabeth (Cummings) Gordon, of New Hampton, N. H., born 4 March, 1826, and died 13 March, 1897. They resided at Farmington. His grandfather, Isaac Cummings, was a soldier in the Revolution.

Children:

i. MARY ELLA GORDON, b. 4 January, 1851; m. Nelson Mitchel, res. Randolph, Mass.
ii. TIMOTHY TRUE GORDON, b. 19 January, 1858, res. Farmington, Me.

iv. EMELINE ELIZABETH GORDON, b. 18 March, 1867; m. Edward Lincoln, res. Gardiner, Me.
v. CAROLINE ELLEN GORDON, b. 18 May, 1868, res. Farmington, Me.

HOSEA[7] BALLOU HILL, the youngest son of Trueworthy[6] and Mary Hill, was born at Lee, 9 November, 1839, and resides at Lowell, Mass. He married 12 May, 1863, Rachel Adriadne Norris, born at Albany, Vt., 5 February, 1840, a daughter of Jonathan and Lucinda (Cross) Norris. Mr. Hill is a carriage manufacturer, very active in church work and benevolence, and is held in high esteem.

They have children:

i. ALMON WARD, b. 27 June, 1864; m. 30 October, 1896, Grace Wright Gerrish.
ii. HENRY CHESTER, b. 4 September, 1869.

RESIDENCE OF THE CANNEY FAMILY.

Thomas Canney or Canne, as the name was usually written, was of Dover, N. H., very early. He was the ancestor of all or nearly all, of the Canney family of New Hampshire. It is not known where he emigrated from when he came to Dover, but like the larger part of the New Hampshire settlers, he probably came from the west part of England. The writer found the following names on the Index of Wills for the Deanery of Totnes, County of Devon, England.

Nicholas Canne, residence Okehampton, will proved, 1587.

John Canne, res. Okehampton, will proved, 1605.

John Canne, res. Okehampton, will proved, 1607.

John Canne, res. Okehampton, will proved, 1614.

Other New Hampshire names were found at Okehampton, particularly, John Underhill, 1613; Elizabeth Quinbe, 1609; Alexander Bartlett, 1614, and John Squier, 1584.

BOOK NOTICES.

MACOMBER GENEALOGY. By Rev. Everett S. Stackpole. Press of the Journal Company, Lewiston, Me. Paper, 8vo., pp. 88.

The above genealogy is confined to the descendants of John Macomber, of Taunton, Mass., 1643. He was a carpenter by trade; was admitted a freeman in 1643, and died sometime between 1687 and 1690, leaving a son John and a daughter Mary, who married a Mr. Staples. The ancestors of John Macomber are not known, neither is the place from which he emigrated, though it is believed that he came from Devon County, England; as other members of the Macomber family were living in that county at that time. It is understood that this work is to be followed by another, giving the descendants of William Macomber, of Duxbury, Mass., 1638. The book is well written, plain and concise, and contains much genealogical data in a small space. Price, two dollars, post paid. Address, Rev. Everett S. Stackpole, Bradford, Mass.

THE MASSACHUSETTS MAGAZINE. Edited by Rev. Thomas Franklin Waters, Ipswich, Mass.; Associate Editors, Frank A. Gardner, M. D., Salem, Mass., Charles A. Flagg, Washington, D. C., and Albert W. Dennis, Salem, Mass. Published by the Salem Press Co., Salem, Mass. An Illustrated Quarterly, Vol. I, No. 1 began with January, 1908. Price $2.50 per year, Single copies 75 cents.

The Massachusetts Magazine is devoted to Massachusetts History, Genealogy and Biography. If we may judge from the first number, it will immediately take front rank among magazines of its kind. This is an age of specialties and specialists. Every field of history, science, literature, and even of human thought has been and is being constantly traversed in a general way. It is the province of the specialist to limit his life work to a single branch or department, and usually the smaller the field the more successful will be his work. This magazine has been divided into separate departments with a specialist in charge of each, and we believe a bright future awaits their earnest, careful and painstaking work.

Reunion of Smith Family, 1904. Press of William H. Benson, Clinton: 1906. Cloth, 8vo., pp. 176, 7 Illustrations.

This book is made up principally of addresses, delivered or written for delivery, at the reunion of the descendants of William Smith held in Peterborough, N. H., August 10, 1904. Chapters on "Researches in Ireland" and the "Historical Address," were written by Jonathan Smith, Esq., of Clinton, Mass.; other chapters were written by Captain John S. Smith of St. Paul, Minn.; J. Gordon R. Wright, Esq. of Cincinnati, Ohio; Col. John H. Cavender, of St. Louis, Mo.; Marcus S. Thomas, Esq., Decatur, Mich.; Andrew Jewett, Esq. of Fitchburg, Mass.; Mrs. Clara F. Bass of Peterborough, N. H., and Abbott Edes Smith, Esq. of Minneapolis, Minn. Though not intended as a genealogy of the descendants of William Smith, Moneymore, Ireland, 1723, later of Peterborough, N. H., yet it contains names of many of the family.

QUERIES.

92. Scribner.—The undersigned is very desirous of ascertaining the parentage and ancestry of Samuel Scribner. He was born February 6, 1784, in Salisbury, Merrimac Co., N. H. He moved with his parents to Vermont, at the age of eight years. From there, he went to the vicinity of Scroon Lake, Essex County, N. Y. He moved to Delaware Co., Ohio in 1809, at which place he was married to Almira Clark, daughter of Israel and Mary (Kendall) Clark of Windham County, Conn., in 1810. He moved to Marion, Ohio, in 1823. He died January 9, 1880, aged ninety-five years, eleven months and three days, at the home of George W. Hull, near Cardington, Morrow Co., Ohio.

Samuel Scribner had at least, brothers John Mache or Mansah and Elias; the latter died in Wheeling, W. Va., in 1840; also a sister Sarah (Sally) born November 26th, 1781, who married Robert Keyes, eldest son of David Keyes, at Middletown, Vt., Dec. 4th, 1806. Sally was a school-teacher at Poultney, Vt. They removed to Poultney, Vt., and in 1823 emigrated to Ohio, and settled in Knox Co. Sarah Scribner died in 1862. (Keyes Genealogy).

Samuel Scribner is connected with the Scribners mentioned in Dearborn's History of Salisbury, N. H. He cannot as yet, be identified with the son of Iddo Scribner, as given there, born June 20th, 1782. In all probability, he was a grandson of the first Samuel (Dearborn's) through his son Samuel, born 1743, Josiah or Ebenezer; or possibly he was a son of John Scribner and Mehitable Clifford. His mother was a Rano, daughter of Elias, or a Newton, daughter of William. Will not some correspondent kindly aid in the matter? Samuel Scribner has left a great number of descendants, who are prominent people in Ohio and the West.

93. Ring.—Whitney.—Moses Ring married Sally Bohonnon(?) and had son Moses, born July 10, 1798, probably at Washington, Vt.; were there other children? Wanted the ancestry of this couple, together with dates, etc.

Moses Ring, Jr. as above, married Lucinda Whitney, born April 7, 1807, probably at Williamstown, Vt., and had 10 children. Lucinda Whitney was daughter of Abel and Phebe (Hopkins) Whitney; wanted dates and ancestry of this couple.

Have notes which make Phebe Hopkins a daughter of James and Mary (Presby) Hopkins, and James a son of Robert and Eleanor (Wilson) Hopkins, but cannot give any dates or authority. Robert Hopkins said to have come from Scotland with three brothers, and appears to have served in the Revolution.

ANSWER TO QUERY.

90. Cole.—Hugh Cole born in England 1627, son of James Cole, came with his father to Plymouth, Mass., in 1633. He married (1) January 8, 1654 Mary Foxwell, daughter of Richard and Ann (Shelly) Foxwell of Barnstable, Mass. He married (2) January 1, 1689 Elizabeth widow of Jacob Cook, formerly widow of William Shurtleff and daughter of Thomas and Ann Lettuce of Plymouth. He married (3) January 30, 1694 Mary, widow of Deacon Ephraim Morton, former widow of William Harlow and daughter of Robert and Judith Shelly.

Children:

1 James, born November 3, 1655; married Mary ———.

2 Hugh, born March 6, 1658; married May 6, 1681 Deborah Buckland.
3 John, born May 15, 1660; married Susannah ———.
4 Martha, born April 16, 1662; died 1711; married John Brooks, had no children.
5 Anna, born December 14, 1664; married July 30, 1684 William Salisbury.
6 Ruth, born January 8, 1666; married June 10, 1693 Deacon Nathaniel Luther.
7 Joseph, born May 18, 1668; supposed to have died young.
8 Ebenezer, born ——— 1671; married Mehitable Luther.
9 Mary, born ——— 1676; married November 27, 1697 Jonathan Kingsley.
10 Benjamin, born ———1678; married June 27, 1701 Hannah Eddy.

AMERICAN REVOLUTIONARY NAVAL SERVICE.

[The following list of New Hampshire privateers engaged in the Revolutionary War was made by Mr. Charles H. Lincoln, for the Library of Congress at Washington. It was made up from the original bonds now on file in the above library, which were given at the time Letters of Marque were issued. More than half of the New Hampshire bonds have been lost or destroyed. Counting the bonds now on file and the bonds missing from the original lists there were 86 Letters of Marque issued to New Hampshire vessels, strictly so to speak not including the 20 or 30 vessels properly belonging to Kittery and Berwick. But part of the original lists are missing, particularly for nearly two years time, and then after the confederation the Letters of Marque were issued by the United States and are not included in this list. It is safe to say that at least 100 New Hampshire privateers were sent out from Portsmouth during the Revolutionary War. The list here given contains the names of 43 vessels, carrying 351 guns and manned by 1950 men. We hope to publish other lists soon, meanwhile we ask our readers, one and all, to be on the search and watch for any paper or papers or records of any kind pertaining to either of these vessels, and whatever may be found to report the same to the editor of this magazine. Later we intend to take up each of these vessels, separately, and wish to give a full, connected history of the same, especially the Revolutionary record of each, with lists of officers and men and time of service. Already several very important papers and records have been found and there are many others pertaining to these vessels now tucked away in old garrets that if found would throw much light upon the history of the New Hampshire privateer service.]

IN MEMORIAM.

HON. CHARLES WOODBURY BICKFORD.

In the death of Hon. Charles Woodbury Bickford, which occurred on Sunday, August 9, 1908, the city of Rochester, N. H., lost one of its most enterprising and deservedly popular citizens. Mr. Bickford was born in Rochester 20 January, 1843, and was the eldest son of John and Hannah M. (Demeritt) Bickford, of that city, and a direct descendant of John Bickford, the emigrant, one of the first settlers of Dover, N. H. He was educated in the public schools of his native town, taking supplementary courses at Lebanon Academy, Wolfeborough Academy, and at Eastman's Business College, Poughkeepsie, New York, teaching during vacations.

In 1866 Mr. Bickford accepted a position as night clerk in the Morton House, New York city, where he remained two years, severing his connection with that hostelry to engage in business at Rochester, with W. B. K. Hodgdon under the firm name of W. B. K. Hodgdon & Co., where he remained until 1871, when the establishment was destroyed by fire. From Rochester he went to Boston, and was steward of the Evans House seven and one-half years; subsequently serving for one year in the same capacity at the United States Hotel in the same city. He was next manager of the Ottawa House, Portland, Me., for one year, and the Narragansett Hotel, Providence, R. I., three years; and was successively steward of Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C., Ocean View House, Block Island, and the Boston Tavern, of the former for five years. In 1890 he opened the Hotel Champlain, at Plattsburg, New York, on Lake Champlain, for Mr. O. D. Seavey, and also served as steward at the Ponce de Leon, St. Augustine, Florida, several winters.

In May, 1894, he temporarily abandoned the hotel business to serve as postmaster at Rochester, to which position he was appointed by the late President Cleveland. In 1898, his term as postmaster having expired, he returned to the hotel business taking charge as general manager for five seasons of the Hotel Ausable, at Ausable Chasm, New York state, and for three winters was steward of the Magnolia Springs Hotel, Florida.

In 1903 he again returned to Rochester, and at the election immediately following was chosen mayor by a pratically unanimous vote, only one vote being cast in opposition. He was subsequently twice elected to that office. His administration gave evidence of progressive thought and honest endeavor, the spirit of public improvement and civic advancement receiving a conspicuous impetus under his energetic leadership. In politics he affiliated with the Democratic party until the nomination of William J. Bryan for President in 1896, at which time he became identified with the Republican cause.

In the summer of 1907, he once more engaged in the hotel business this time as manager of the Masconomo Hotel at Manchester-by-the-Sea, Massachusetts.

He held many positions of trust and responsibility in his native town, including the office of town clerk, member of the common council, chairman of the board of supervisors, chief engineer of the fire department, trustee of the Gaffney Home for the Aged, director of the Rochester Cemetery Association, and member of the board of education.

He was a prominent member of the Masonic fraternity, being affiliated with Humane Lodge, A. F. & A. M., Temple Chapter, R. A. M., Orient Council, R. & S. M., Palestine Commandery, K. T., all of Rochester, and Aleppo Temple of the Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, of Boston, Mass. He was also an active member of the New Hampshire Genealogical Society, and in the advancement of its scope and usefulness manifested a deep and intelligent interest.

Mr. Bickford was twice married; his first wife was Mary L. Henderson, born May 3, 1842, daughter of Charles and Mary (Tibbetts) Henderson, of Rochester. They were married May 28, 1868. She was a very estimable woman, and died December 11, 1903. He married, second, July 9, 1906, Frances Hussey, born July 14, 1862, the much respected and highly accomplished daughter of George D. and Mary (Foss) Hussey of Rochester, who survives her husband. No child ever blest either of these unions.

Whole souled, generous and sympathetic, he won a warm place in the hearts of all by his unfailing courtesy and kindness, while his unobtrusive deeds of charity, his substantial manifestation of that friendliness which finds its sweetest fruition in kindly deeds, builded for him a temple of love and gratitude at whose shrine hundreds of his fellow citizens bow in saddened, 'though ever grateful memory. The funeral services, held at the family residence, were conducted by Rev. W. H. Walbridge, and attended by Palestine Commandery, Knights Templar, in a body, and a host of sorrowing friends.

FRED E. QUIMBY,
Necrologist, New Hampshire Genealogical Society.

SARAH BURNHAM, DAUGHTER OF ROBERT, OF OYSTER RIVER.

By Henry Winthrop Hardon, A. M., LL. B.

She is not mentioned in the published Burnham Genealogy, yet the record proof makes a clear case that she was born about 1654, that she married about 1672 Lieut. James[2] (Robert[1]) Huckins of Oyster River and was the mother of Robert[3] Huckins from whom most, if not all, the persons of that name born in New Hampshire descend (6 N. H. Deeds, p. 206).

In 1749 Capt. John[4] Huckins (Robert[3]) conveyed "all my right in the estate of my great-grandfather Robert Burnum" (107 Rockingham Co. Deeds, p. 357). Similar deeds were made in 1747 by his brothers James[4] and Joseph[4] (id. 357, 359). The problem therefore is to exclude all the other great-grandfathers of Capt. John[4], James[4], and Joseph[4] Huckins, except the father of the wife of Lieut. James[2] Huckins.

Robert[3] Huckins married as early as 1692 Wealthen[2] Thomas (N. H. Court Papers 1692-3, pp. 149, 191, 243, 247-8, 353) daughter of James[1] Thomas of Oyster River. The will of Robert[3] Huckins dated January 9, 1719/20, proved March 2, 1719/20, mentions his wife Wealthen and his eight children, of whom James[4], the "eldest son" was born about 1701, Capt. John[4] about 1704 (tombstone) and Joseph[4] about 1714 (32 Reg., p. 135). His widow Wealthen subsequently married John Gray of Oyster River (33 Reg. p. 346).

The four great-grandfathers with whom we are concerned are thus the two grandfathers of Robert[3] Huckins and the two grandfathers of Wealthen[2] Thomas. The grandfathers Huckins and Thomas are necessarily excluded, and inquiry is thus limited to the maternal grandfathers of this husband and wife.

James[1] Thomas married as early as May 10, 1670, Martha[2] Goddard (John[1]) of Oyster River, for he shared as son-in-law in the division made on that day of the estate of John[1] Goddard (31 N. H. St. P., p. 101). James[1] Thomas was living in 1715 (11 N. H. St. P., p. 309-10) but before Dec. 7, 1718, Martha his widow had married Elias Critchett of Oyster River (23 Reg., p. 297). She was the mother of Wealthen[2] Thomas as appears by her deed of Jan. 21, 1719/20 (17 N. H. Province Deeds, p. 53).

Thus by a process of exclusion the great-grandfather Robert Burnham mentioned in the deeds of Capt. John[4], James[4] and Joseph[4] Huckins must have been the father of the wife of Lieut. James[2] Huckins.

It remains to add a few words about Robert[1] Burnham and his daughter Sarah[2]. Robert[1] Burnham came over in the Angel Gabriel. He was at Ipswich 1636, Boston 1644 and Dover 1654 (5 Reg., p. 452). His nuncupative will of June 11, 1691, proved September 29, 1691, is at Salem. It mentions his wife Frances and no children but his sons Samuel[2] and Jeremiah[2] (31 N. H. St. P., p. 360), though it is known that he had others.

Sarah[2] Burnham, wife of Lieut. James[2] Huckins, was born about 1654, for she deposed December 31, 1673 aged "about 19 years" (N. H. Court papers 1672-3, p. 395). She married not later than 1672, for the birth of their daughter Sarah on December 12, 1672 is recorded (7 Reg., p. 121). Her husband was slain at Oyster River in the Indian Massacre of 1689 (Mather's Magnalia, App. Art. VI.) She survived him and was carried into captivity, but was recovered a year later at Fort Androscoggin and married Oct. 17, 1700, Capt. John[2] Woodman (Lieut. Edward[1]) of Oyster River (9 Reg., p. 145).

QUERIES.

94. Westbrook.—Thomas Westbrook, eldest son of John Westbrook of Portsmouth, N. H., deceased, was appointed administrator of his father's estate, August 11, 1697; Alice Westbrook, widow of John, having, on the same date, renounced her right to act in that capacity. John Westbrook was elected one of the selectmen of Portsmouth on March 29, 1797.

Thomas Westbrook was subsequently, for several years, a member of the Provincial Council of New Hampshire, and about 1727, settled in Falmouth, Maine, where he became a prominent business man, and died in February, 1744.

Can any one inform me of the place and date of his birth?

F. M. Ray,

191 Middle St., Portland, Maine.

ANSWER TO QUERY.

93. Ring.—I am unable to answer this query, but perhaps can give the querist a clew.

Elijah[5] Ring (Issachar,[4] Jarvis,[3] Jarvis,[2] Robert,[1]) born in Salisbury, Mass., April 3, 1751, was of Corinth, Vt., in 1790, with seven children. See U. S. Census of 1790, Vermont.

Edward A. Brown,

Public Library, Amesbury, Mass.

Note.—Seth Ring was a resident of Newington, N. H. early as 1717. He had several sons and left many descendants some of whom may have removed to Vermont. A large number of people emigrated from the south part of New Hampshire and settled in Vermont about the time of the Revolution.—Ed.
